

DEC 19 1960

NEW YORK POST

In negotiating the treaty for our West Indies bases, Jock Whitney became the first U. S. ambassador to negotiate a treaty, in years. He did it without any fanfare . . . Gen. Walter Bedell Smith has made a remarkable comeback after his long siege of illness. He's now actively back at his corporate posts . . .